FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Genesis Bible Institute Courses Now Accessible to 700,000 Inmates

Tucson, AZ: Genesis Bible Institute is pleased to announce that it has published its first course on Edovo, a software application that provides online learning at no cost to more than 700,000 inmates in 49 states.

"Our team just published our first course on Edovo, and we are elated," said David Johnson, the Chairman of the Board for Genesis College and Seminary. "We currently mail our Bible courses and Reentry courses to inmates in eight states, but now inmates across the nation will have access to our tuition-free courses on their prison-issued tablets."

On August 9th, Genesis Bible Institute signed a contract with Edovo to publish its certificate and college-level courses. Edovo provides education, job skills, and faith-based courses to "justice-impacted" individuals at no cost. "Our partnership with Edovo is a primary way we will make a difference in the lives of inmates, who are often neglected by church and society," Johnson said. "Prisons are one of the biggest unreached mission fields in the world, and we are focused on training men and women to depart from their former ways as they submit to Christ and allow God's Word to renew their minds and transform their behaviors."

Genesis Bible Institute is the prison ministry of Genesis College and Seminary. The college is a 501(c)3 formed in 2018 by an interdenominational team of pastors, teachers, professors, administrators, and inmates. The ministry is endorsed by many noted community leaders and theologians, all of whom have a heart to see inmates experience the love of God and the hope he offers.
